Walking Guide

Disclaimer

This walking route is provided for general guidance only. Visitors follow this route at their own risk. This route includes stretches of country road without pavements and a crossing of The Tilford Road (40mph). We encourage visitors to take care, be aware of traffic, and supervise children closely. As this route uses public highways, the Rural Life Living Museum cannot accept responsibility for any incidents that may occur while walking to or from the museum.

Pre arranged visits are required as you enter the museum through the back gate which needs RLLM staff to unlock it.

Recommended Safety Advice:

- Please take care when walking on roads without pavements.
- Wear high-visibility clothing where possible.
- Cross only when you have a clear view in both directions.
- Children must be supervised at all times.
- Wear appropriate clothing for walking across the heathland. Sensible footwear, sun hats, sun cream etc. Beware of ticks.

3.

At the end of Sheephatch Lane (what3words consented.banks.kitchens) there will be an entrance to the public bridleway on the other side of Tilford Road. Most walkers choose to cross at this point, where visibility is better. The speed limit for Tilford Road is 40mph.
