For people who love the museum and want it to stay with connections from childhood, their parents and grandparents, who all have our rural spirit and still love to explore.

For people with a passion for learning - inspiring curiosity in little learners and supporting rural skills and craft. Champion creative learning and the facilities to match.

For those who love heritage buildings, machines whirring and engines running. Support the collection and the estate. Have a heart for repairs, restoration and upkeep.

For the strategists, corporate highflyers and investors with grit. This is mission RLLM. Help be the driving force that realises our vision. Be part of our 10 year investment plan.

Our next big project with your support could be turning a workshop into a warm creative learning space.....

Thank you for your kindness and support.

The Rural Life Living Museum is owned and operated by the Old Kiln Museum CIO, registered charity number 1200370. The museum receives no external funding and is dependent on ticket sales and donations to continue operating. We really appreciate your support.

Donations to the Patrons Scheme are made and administered via CAF Donate. CAF Donate fully complies with UK GDPR regulations. CAF acts as the Data Processor and manages data relating to our donors responsibly and securely. They report details of our donors choices regarding future contact to us accurately and, as Data Controller, we then comply with our own privacy policy in handling that data.

If you want to remain anonymous you can!

With so much going on in the world right now, it can feel incredibly overwhelming and many donors question if their contribution can make a genuine difference. Please be assured all donations make a HUGE difference at the Rural Life Living Museum. Thank you.
